Voucher Terms and Conditions

The voucher is valid for two years from the date of purchase or until the monetary value of the voucher has been used, whichever is sooner.

Only the authorised recipient of the voucher can redeem its value.

Vouchers can be used as part payment and so if the price of the goods and/or services exceeds this value, the balance must also be paid on order.

The voucher does not guarantee a place on training events; it only enables the holder to book a place on any course or event when places are available.

PEEP vouchers can not be used retrospectively, i.e. applied to orders or bookings already placed with us.

Vouchers can not be redeemed for cash nor sold or transferred for value.

Normal PEEP terms and conditions apply for publications orders and training courses.

Vouchers remain the property of PEEP.
